

This #ThankfulThursday, we meet Glenn Reitman, head coach of the Fort Bend Panther Lacrosse program, right here in Sienna!

Glenn is a native of Long Island, New York and attended St. John's University. He and his wife Deanna have been residents of Sienna for 10 years now. He and Deanna have two boys, Alex and Jason. Glenn's day job? He's an attorney/partner.

We asked Glenn what his favorite past times are, and he told us, "coaching Lacrosse and eating meat." <insert manly growl> His favorite "spot" in Sienna? "Field 9, Camp Sienna." We also asked who his hero is, and he shared, "Jeffrey Baylor Reitman."

We wondered what has been most rewarding in your roles with Fort Bend Panthers Lacrosse, and he replied, "I am always amazed that everyone in Sienna thinks of others before they think of themselves." So true, Glenn.

He added, "Our sports and recreational facilities are second to none. We are very fortunate to have them and be able to provide great community programs to everyone. The facilities are a source of tremendous pride for all of the user programs and families that use them. "

Our coaches and league leaders are a source of tremendous pride as well, Glenn...yourself included. Thank you for your dedication to the youth of Sienna, introducing our kids to an amazing sport years ago, and continuing to dedicate your "free time" to growing lacrosse in our backyard!
