

Every Thursday, we're going to highlight one of our Recreation Department's partners in our #ThankfulThursday series that makes Sienna such an amazing place to live, work & play!

Today, in our first ever edition, we're "kicking off" with Rick LaFavers, the Athletic Coordinator and Head Football Coach at Ridge Point High School. Rick and his wife Kim have four sons (Austin, Coleson, Ryan & Tyler). Rick is from Amarillo, where he played football, basketball & ran track, then took his talents to TCU where he played football! In his "free time" (when does a coach really have any!?), Rick enjoys golfing and snow skiing, and his favorite food is seafood.

Rick shared that his hero is his dad. His father grew up very poor, was the first to graduate college in his family, "...is a great man of God...with character & integrity and a hard worker."

Rick shared that he loves being outside in this great community and seeing so many people out and about enjoying life! He added, "I love this community! I have been here since 2007 and seen lots of growth and transformations! We have great people! Very diverse! I love this school and very honored and proud to be a part of this school and represent this community!"

When asked what he loves most about his job, he said, "The kids! Helping and seeing kids grow and mature and journey through the ups and downs! Being a small part of that process is very humbling and just simply awesome!"

Rick, we're very thankful to have you here representing us!
