

This #ThankfulThursday, we meet Andy Acuna, President of Sienna Youth Baseball League!

Andy and his wife of 14 years, Amber, have 2 boys, Austen (10) and Masen (9)...and a dog named Mac, he was sure to add. The Acuna family has lived in Sienna for 6 years now!

Andy is a native of League City and attended Sam Houston State and The University of Houston. His "day job" is CFO and Helicopter Pilot for an aerial survey company!

Andy's favorite past times are family time, coaching baseball, and playing golf ("if there is ever time to!", he quips).

When asked who his hero is, he proudly & with all due reverence says, " All active, veteran, and fallen members of our US Military. My grandfathers and father all served."

His your favorite "spot" to be in Sienna? It's obvious: "Camp Sienna Baseball Fields".

We asked Andy what he enjoys most in his role with Sienna Youth Baseball, and he said, "Coaching is easily the most enjoyable part. Contributing to a kids growth as a person and in the sport of baseball is extremely rewarding".

Andy, we're so thankful for your service to our community. You give of yourself so that our kids can have a safe, nurturing place to learn the game of baseball and we're so thankful for your time and effort to the benefit of our kids.
