

For today's #ThankfulThursday, we're excited to introduce you to one of Sienna's volunteer coaches, Tanner Boyle.

Tanner is a native of New Orleans. Tanner and his wife Christina have lived in Sienna for 12 years. They have two children: Max and Adeline.

We asked Tanner what his favorite pastime is and he said, we're excited to say, coaching youth sports!

While in Sienna, Tanner has coached youth basketball, youth baseball and youth flag football: he does it all!

Who are Tanner's heroes? Drew Brees (WHO DAT!?) and Ozzie Smith.

We asked Tanner what his favorite "spot" in Sienna is, and he said, without hesitation, "the Camp Sienna baseball fields".

Tanner, we're so thankful for you and other volunteers like you: you're the lifeblood of our youth organizations. Without people like you who give so selflessly, we couldn't have the amazing programs in our community that we do.
