

Today's edition of the #ThankfulThursday series introduces us to Debbie Gallardo, the Association's Recreation Supervisor!

Debbie is a native of Orange County, CA. She and her husband, Dan, have three children (Marissa, Nico & Griffin). Debbie and her family have been residents of Sienna since 2006. Debbie attended Golden West College where she earned a Health Science Degree and then Houston Community College where she earned her Hospitality Administration Certification.

In her free time, Debbie loves hiking, going to the beach, scrapbooking and being with her family. She says she loves tacos and Mexican food! Of all of the fabulous venues and "spots" throughout Sienna, Debbie says her favorite are the trails at Camp Sienna.

When asked what she loves most about her job, she says that she, "enjoys helping others create meaningful memories". She says she is most thankful for her "life with (her) family".

Debbie can be found at the Sawmill Lake Club and reached at debbieg@clubsienna.com.

Debbie...we are SO thankful that you are here, representing Sienna. We can't imagine it without you!
